

PROVIDER ALERT

YES System of Care - Training Opportunities YES Program & IBHP Enhancement

December 13, 2018

Dear Providers,

Please see the communication below for information about upcoming training opportunities from Optum.

YES Navigation Series

The YES Navigation Series reviews information from Optum's Level of Care Guidelines, Fee Schedule, and Provider Manual. The trainings are beneficial for agency owners, managers, clinicians, paraprofessionals, and billing & administrative staff. Parts I & II of the YES Navigation Series are currently available on Relias.

YES Navigation Series – Part III is offered via three live webinars in January 2019. This training outlines the YES System of Care continuum of care, information about how the YES services interact, and provides an overview of services previously implemented between July 1, 2018 and October 1, 2018. The webinars include time for a live Question & Answer session. An on-demand recording of the webinar will be posted on our Relias e-learning platform after the webinars have been completed.

CANS Trainings

The CANS is the State-approved functional assessment tool required by July 1, 2019. Optum is offering a series of three separate in-person CANS trainings at four locations throughout the state facilitated by the Praed Foundation. Providers may opt to attend one or all of the available classes based on their interest. The courses do not replace certification, but are designed to support providers who intend to become CANS certified. Network providers will need to be CANS certified and registered within ICANS by June 30, 2019.

Skills Building/CBRS Training

Optum is excited to offer an on-demand training titled Skills Building/Community Based Rehabilitative Services: Treatment Planning and Service Request Form. This is an interactive e-learning module that will give providers information and practice exercises. The goal of the training is to assist providers with the July 1, 2018 changes to Skills Building prior authorization requests. The training is available as of December 1, 2018 on Relias.

Please reach out to optum.idaho.education@optum.com if you have any questions about the upcoming training opportunities. Providers may register for trainings at optumidaho.com > For Network Providers > Provider Trainings.

Thank you,

The Optum Idaho Team
