

Idaho Community of Practice on Conducting Virtual Group Sessions

Provided by the Northwest
ATTC

Join the “Enhancing Your Virtual Group Therapy Skills” four-part community of practice series for Idaho practitioners. Register for all or just the sessions that interest you. Our goal is to provide a space for dialogue, questions, a discussion of what has and has not been successful, and to share resources. Receive support for the challenging work of providing group services in a telehealth environment.

Community of practice sessions that will be held monthly starting in January and going through April 2021. They will be facilitated by Dr. Leann Diederich, Group Psychologist and a former Board Member of the Society of Group Psychology and Group Psychotherapy (Division 49 of the American Psychological Association). Hosted by the Northwest Addiction Technology Transfer Center.

Target Audience:

Counselors, probation and parole officers and case managers providing virtual group therapy session.

Community of Practice: Engaging Clients in Virtual Groups

January 28th, 2021

11:00 am – Noon (MT)

Virtual Zoom meeting

Register here: http://bit.ly/CommunityOfPractice_January28

Are you struggling with engaging clients through virtual groups? Do you wonder if you are working too hard in your groups? Do you want to capture some of the power that groups can offer your clients?

Join us for the first community of practice session on engaging clients in virtual group to share ideas and resources.

Community of Practice: Ethics and Confidentiality in Virtual Groups

February 25th, 2021

11:00 am – Noon (MT)

Virtual Zoom meeting

Register here: http://bit.ly/CommunityOfPractice_February25

Are you using the current best practices to protect confidentiality in virtual groups? Do you know when you should refer a client to a different modality for treatment? Do you want to feel more confident with the requirements you have in place for members to join a group?

Join us for the second Community of Practice virtual session with group therapy practitioners across Idaho. Our goal is to provide a space for participants to bring up their struggles and how they have navigated these dilemmas in their groups.

Community of Practice: Making Technology Work For You

March 25th, 2021

11:00 am – Noon (MT)

Virtual Zoom meeting

Register here: http://bit.ly/CommunityOfPractice_March25

Do you wonder if you are using the best tools available to manage your virtual groups? Do you want to learn about other technological supports that could make leading your groups easier? Do you know how to creatively use your virtual platform to engage clients?

Join us for the third Community of Practice virtual session with other group therapy practitioners across Idaho. Our goal is to provide a forum for dialogue, sharing of lessons and tips, and provide support for the work that therapists are doing in the virtual landscape.

Community of Practice: Managing Challenging Situations in Virtual Groups

April 22nd, 2021

11:00 am – Noon (MT)

Virtual Zoom meeting

Register here: http://bit.ly/CommunityOfPractice_April22

Have you encountered a difficult client in virtual group? Did you wonder how you could have handled it differently? Do you worry about client drop-out?

Join us for the fourth Community of Practice virtual session with other group therapy practitioners across Idaho. Our goal is to provide a space for dialogue, questions, and a discussion of what has and has not been successful. Come and receive support for addressing challenging situations in virtual groups.

Questions?

Contact us at: northwest@attcnetwork.org
<http://attcnetwork.org/northwest>

Northwest (HHS Region 10)

ATTC

Addiction Technology Transfer Center Network
Funded by Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration