

IDAHO DEPARTMENT OF
HEALTH & WELFARE
DIVISION OF BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

FREE TRAINING

Person-Centered Crisis and Safety Planning

Three Virtual Training dates available:

1. Tuesday, January 25, 2 - 3 p.m. Register Now!
2. Friday, February 4, 1 - 2 p.m. Register Now!
3. Friday, February 18, 2 - 3 p.m. Register Now!

FREE CEU AVAILABLE

In This Training

You Will Learn:

- How to talk with youth and families about crisis and safety issues in a strengths-based way
- What the crisis cycle is and how to use it in the planning process with youth, families, and teams
- How to build a team to support the youth and family in the crisis & safety planning process
- How to develop an individualized crisis & safety plan that includes proactive and reactive strategies
- When to revisit and update the crisis & safety plan with the youth, family, and team

If you have questions about the training, please contact Michelle Schildhauer.

Training presented by the Portland State Systems of Care Institute and the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare's Division of Behavioral Health.